
Directive 2011/65/EU of the European Parliament and the Council of 8 June 2011 on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (recast of the directive 2002-95-EG – RoHS)

Dear Sirs,

Above directive is not applicable for products supplied by MEREFSA.

Reason:

- Merefsa doesn't manufacture or supply electrically or electronically apparatuses or products in the sense of article 2 and appendix I of this directive.
- Merefsa has not an influence on the specific function of the supplied products.

For this reason the declaration of Annex VI (EC Declaration of Conformity) of this directive is no applicable.

Nevertheless, the products delivered from Merefsa meet the Annex II of this directive.

If you require further information, please contact:
